

116th Annual Peter J. McGuire

1894

2010

Labor Day Observance

TO: AFL-CIO Officers and Delegates
Local Union Officers and Stewards
Honored Guests

FROM: Donald Norcross, President
Susan Michielli, Secretary-Treasurer

Please join Congressman Rob Andrews, Congressman John Adler, Senate President Steve Sweeney and NJ Labor Commissioner Harold Wirths for the 116th Annual Peter J. McGuire Labor Day celebration.

The event will be held on Friday, September 3, 2010 at 9:00 AM in the Collingswood Grand Ballroom/Scottish Rite Auditorium, located on the White Horse Pike in Collingswood. Immediately following the ceremony, we will proceed to Arlington Cemetery in Pennsauken where a brief wreath-laying ceremony at the Peter J. McGuire Memorial will take place.

The Peter J. McGuire scholarships will be presented to students associated with a union who are attending Rutgers University, Rowan University, Camden County College or Gloucester County College. In addition, the 15th Annual George E. Norcross, Jr. Humanitarian Award for community service will be awarded to Rose Glassberg, President of American Federation of Teachers Local 2373 Retirees.

We encourage everyone to bring their fellow officers, union members, families and friends to commemorate the origins of Labor Day and celebrate the organized labor movement in America. Please contact us by August 27th at 856.663.1555 to confirm your attendance so that we may make the proper arrangements.
