ELECTION DAY / SPECIAL EDITION

Tonight was a great victory for working families. Our success comes as a result of the outstanding effort put forth by thousands of union members and community allies working together to educate and engage voters in this election. The leaders we elected to the New Jersey State Legislature are committed to standing up for working families during these tough economic times and will make job creation our state's number one priority.

We applaud State Senators Linda Greenstein (D-14) and Bob Gordon (D-38) on their re-election victories in two of New Jersey's most competitive districts. It is no coincidence that these candidates, both of whom stood up for collective bargaining rights, prevailed in their respective races. We proved that when our leaders stand up for us, we will stand up for them. The election victories of Assemblymen Nelson Albano (D-01), Troy Singleton (D-07) Wayne DeAngelo (D-14), Daniel Benson (D-14), Assemblywoman Connie Wagner (D-38), and Assemblyman Elect Timothy Eustace (D-38), are further evidence of this fact.

All 120 seats in the State Legislature were on the ballot this election. Thanks to labor's efforts, both houses will maintain their Democratic majorities – in the Senate 24 to 16 and the Assembly 48 to 32. Union members also succeeded in electing a majority of the New Jersey State AFL-CIO's labor candidates achieving 34 election victories tonight and 684 to date.

We thank the countless union and community volunteers who invested their time to bring about this election success, but with the major challenges our state faces, we know our work is far from finished. We are eager to work with our friends and allies in the State Legislature to create jobs and achieve an economy that works for all New Jerseyans.
