

Rally for International Human Rights Day!

Workers Rights Are Human Rights!

Let's show
Newark Liberty International Airport workers that their union brothers and sisters in New Jersey are behind them!

On Tuesday, December 11, 2007, a coalition of labor, community organizations and inter-faith representatives, led by the New Jersey State AFL-CIO, Essex/West Hudson Central Labor Council and the Essex County Building and Construction Trades Council will commemorate International Human Rights Day. The rally will highlight the struggle of 2,700 Continental Airlines fleet service workers as they organize with the Transport Workers Union, and workers at HDS Retail North America forming a union with UNITE HERE, both at Newark Liberty International Airport.

Tuesday, December 11th
7:00 PM
Newark Intl Airport Marriott
Newark, NJ
